BRAZILIANS FIGHTING.

A Bloody Battle Between Matto Grosso Rebels and Federal Troops Reported.

American Iron Manufacturers are Threatening to Lock-out Their Workmen.

Suit Over Trinidad Asphalt in New York---Senator Hoar Likely to Retire.

RIO JANEIRO, Brazil, June 25.—Col. Sila Brosa has reported to the war office under the date Corumba, Matto Grosso, May 18, that the revolutionists had attacked the federals. After a bloody battle, in which upwards of one thousand men were killed, they retired but left the result undecided. The revolutionary leaders gave orders that no prisoners were to be taken, but that the federal officers and soldiers were to be killed. At Cuyaba, he says the revolutionists sacked houses and committed all sorts of outrages on the inhabitants. He asks for aid in defending Corumba. No details of the battle, outside of Colbarbose, have as yet been received. A Brazilian squadron has appeared off Asuncion.

RIVERA, Brazil, June 25.—The revolutionists have occupied the State of Santa Ana, Sioromento. Generals Hippolyte and Isadero are expected to arrive before long with troops. At Tamavis, Bage offers to surrender himself if his life is guaranteed by the federal officers. The governor of the state organized an armed force, consisting of disgruntled revolutionists and bandits rejected by the rebels. It is reported that Baron Anthof has resigned. There were 20 killed and 30 wounded in the late fight a Rivera. President Peixotis has sent federal troops to the support of Gen. Cartelho at Yugaron. Baron Itaqui is opposed to him with 3,000 men and bloodshed is feared. The Uraguayans are enlisting on both sides. The telegraph is interrupted.

The Queen as a Plaintiff.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The Press this morning says: A patch of asphalt known as Pitch Lake, which is on the island of Trinidad, has brought Victoria, Queen of England and the Empress of India and the Standard Asphalt Company, of No. 54 Wall street, into legal conflict. A motion to vacate on attachment was yesterday argued by Her Majesty through her attorneys, Niles and Johnson, before Judge Andres of the Supreme Court. Her Majesty claims the ownership of, and is watchful over, a portion of the asphalt. Nine thousand dollars' worth of the mud was taken from her territory, it is alleged, and was sold to the Standard Asphalt Company, and reached their pier at Gowanson by the schooner Ballard last Monday. The British authorities in Trinidad at once wired their attorneys, at whose request the sheriff issued writs of replevin for the cargo. The motion to vacate was made by George Blackwell, lawyer for the Asphalt company. Her Majesty asked for an adjournment, and it was granted on the condition that the defendant be given two more days to prepare a bond. The case was adjourned until Tuesday. The only other case in which the Queen of England has been plaintiff in a replevin suit here was when in conjunction with the Sultan of Turkey she brought action to recover arms purchased from the Hartford Arms Co.

Ottawa News.

OTTAWA, June 29.—Members of the Cabinet have great faith in the offer they have submitted to President Harrison looking to the settlement of the canal discrimination controversy. The Canadian proposal, forwarded through the British Government, reached the British legation at Washington prior to the day on which President Harrison forwarded his dictatory message. Up to last night no word had been received from Washington as to whether it had reached the President or not. From what has leaked out it is understood that Canada's offer is based on the lines of a measure of reciprocity of canals on both sides of the St. Lawrence, which was talked over at the recent conference at Washington.

C. Curtiss, special agent of the Inland Revenue Department, of Winnipeg, is in this city. During the past few months Mr. Curtiss has been engaged in making an inspection of whiskey stills, petroleum, oil and tobacco from Edmonton to Joliet. Since January he has made 72 seizures. The cases of 40 have been prosecuted and convicted; the other 32 are lying in abeyance.

The Government and the Canada Western Company Come to an Agreement.

Mr. Rithet Says the Chief Surveyor Will Leave Chicago on the First of July.

"You can say," said Mr. R. P. Rithet to a TIMES reporter to-day, "that everything has been satisfactorily arranged between the Canada Western Railway Company and the Government. The chief surveyor will leave Chicago on the 1st of July and commence work immediately upon his arrival here."

Hon. Theo. Davie, the Attorney-General, when spoken to in regard to the matter, would say very little. "If Mr. Rithet told you that satisfactory arrangements have been made you can say so," said Mr. Davie. This is all he would say and the other Ministers were not to be found.

Col. Kane has suddenly changed to a sphinx.

What Mr. Rithet says makes it certain that the Canada Western Railway Company has been given the charter, preliminaries that had delayed the matter since it was announced in the TIMES that the company would get the charter, being arranged.

ARGUMENTS FOR DEMOCRATS.

Iron Capitalists Making War on the Workmen—The Carnegie Business.

PITTSBURG, June 25.—It is reported that Andrew Carnegie will cause his partners to withdraw their notice of a reduction of from 40 to 60 per cent. in wages of the 4000 employees of the Homestead mill. This is the last day for the workmen to accept the reduction. Less than a hundred did so. A representative of the firm said to-night that the balance of the 4000 would be shut out of the mill next Friday night.

NEW YORK, June 25.—When pay time comes to-day every housesmith in this city, Brooklyn and Jersey City will be discharged. This is the final move of the Irom League in the waiting game that has been played for the past few months by labor and capital in the iron trade. No distinction will be made and no mercy shown. Yesterday the Iron League made public a resolution to that effect, which has been unanimously adopted and will be rigorously carried out.

A MODEL C.P.R. TRAIN

For Exhibition at World's Fair—Montreal's Longitude, Etc.

MONTREAL, June 25.—Prof. McLeod, of McGill observatory, leaves for England to-day in connection with determining the longitude of Montreal from Greenwich. He will be away some two months.

W. C. Van Horne, President of the Canadian Pacific railway, returned to Montreal yesterday after a trip of inspection over the Atlantic division. Mr. Van Horne informed a reporter to-day that there was no truth in the statement that his mission on this trip was to consult with Lord Mount Stephen on the subject of the Canadian Pacific Railway Steamship service. As to the proposal to exhibit a model C.P.R. car at Columbia exposition, Mr. Van Horne said the project depended entirely upon the facilities which the company may obtain in the great fair.

Mr. McNicoll, the general passenger agent, stated that the Canadian section of the exposition would be in conjunction with the British section; that he had written the British commissioner, who had just arrived in New York, and that his reply would probably decide the matter. If the car is exhibited, it shall be of Canadian make and equipped by Canadian trainmen.

Senator Hoar's Troubles.

BOSTON, June 25.—The next legislature may have to fill both of Massachusetts' seats in the U.S. Senate. The term of Senator Dawes will expire next March, and Senator Hoar may resign. Only a short time ago Senator Hoar went to Europe for his health. During all his previous service in the Senate he had never been absent from his place when that body was in session, which shows the gravity of his condition physically. He is troubled with a disease of the eyes which threatens total blindness. Thus far, according to advices received by his friends, he is not improving. It is said he will never resume his seat in the Senate, and that before the beginning of next year he will send in his resignation.

Six Duels To-Day.

PARIS, June 25.—The fatal outcome of the DeMores-Mayer duel has caused a great deal of excitement and rumors of affairs of honor are prevalent. One report has it that six Hebrew officers have challenged six editors of the anti-Semitic Journal, Libre Parole, and that six duels will be fought simultaneously to-day.

PASSENGERS CRUSHED.

A Fatal Collision of Trains on the Pennsylvania Railway Near Harrisburg.

Nine People Killed—Bodies Mangled Beyond all Chance of Recognition.

The Disaster Attributed to the Delivery of Misleading Train Orders.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 25.—The most fearful wreck which ever occurred in this city took place this morning. The first section of the Western express, due here soon after midnight, which was very late, was flagged below the city. The second section came thundering along at the rate of 45 miles per hour and dashed into the first section, killing nine and injuring some 70. The following are identified among the dead: Richard Adams, Harrisburg; Kate Gingerich, Norristown, Pa.; Mrs. Hegbriar, Uriah; Daniel Mason, Hagerstown, Md.; Rev. Dr. Decostra Pomorine, Philadelphia; John Raymond, Harrisburg; E. M. Witlock, Cleveland. Injured: J. Aikins, baggagemaster, Philadelphia; Morey Anderson, Jersey City Heights; George Burnett, Trenton, N.J.; Miss Carsteller, Icksburg, Pa.; Fred Colberg, Brooklyn, N.Y.; W. T. Eastweek, East Liberty; J. A. Kluck, Palmyra, N.J.; W. B. Parsons, New York; Perry Lands, Philadelphia; Professor Smith, Baltimore; W. H. Woodward, porter of the sleeping car. The cars were piled in confusion over all the trackr. The Westinghouse private car was attached to the first section and was upturned and totally demolished.

The screams of the wounded could be heard squares away and one of the most heartrending scenes took place. Before the debris could be moved several persons died in the wreck. Deluging rain was pouring down, causing those who were injured to suffer intense pain. The engine of the second section telescoped several cars of the first section. A crowd soon gathered and an ambulance carried the wounded to the city hospital, numbering up to this time seventy men, women and children. Several of the injured went to various houses in the vicinity, and it is impossible to ascertain the names of all who are missing. The city hospital is a mass of maimed this morning. The cause of the accident is not exactly known, but there seems to have been a mistake in the reading of the signals. Hungarians who lived in the vicinity of accident were busy robbing the dead but were arrested and locked up. An immense crowd gathered at the scene and the entire police force have been called out to preserve order. Several undertakers are busy, and wrecking crews have been at work carrying away the debris. Richard Adams, who is among the killed, is a furniture dealer of this city. He had gone to Philadelphia with his wife, who remained in that city. The railroad officials are seemingly paralyzed by the extent of the disaster, which is by far the worst the road has known in many years. They decline to make any statement whatever, but are giving the wounded every attention possible. W. H. Woodard, the porter of the Westinghouse car, who was the only one in the car hurt said: "We had not the slightest warning. Almost everyone was in bed. Mr. Westinghouse had told me he was going to retire when the crash came. How anyone escaped injury is a mystery."

One young woman, elegantly attired and probably 18 years of age, was pinned to the track by a truck of one of the cars resting on her body. Her head had been severed from her body. It was over an hour before the body could be removed. She had on her person a gold watch and considerable money. The bodies of five persons were conveyed to Union depot in a baggage car and afterwards transferred to the dead house to await identification. Each section of the train was made up of seven coaches. The city is filled with wounded and 12 have already died, and several more are lying between life and death.

Among the injured are:—Mrs. Whitlan, of Pittsburg, broken ankle; her two daughters, slight bruises; Uriah Heebner, or Heebric; F. M. C. Fly, Buffalo, N.Y.; J. J. Cone, Jersey City; F. W. Farthing, Buffalo; a man named Mason, Clear Spring, Md, will die. The operator at Steelton is alleged to be responsible for the accident, in having given Engineer Kelly the wrong signal. A sharp curve at Dock street made the disaster more serious. The mangled bodies were in several instances unrecognizable. One car had to be hacked up to recover the body of a woman, whose head was crushed to a shapeless mass."

Parnell's Mother Returns.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Mrs. Della S. Parnell, mother of the late Charles S. Parnell, arrived here yesterday on the steamship Germanic. Mrs. Parnell, in speaking of the Irish people and her son, said: "A great many of the Irish people now believe that my son Charles was poisoned. There is no evidence that such is the case, but the belief is held by many. All feel very bad over his death, and now realize that he was working for their good. There is much feeling on the part of some of them against the priests, and they decline to have anything to do with them."

In Honor of Edward Blake.

QUEBEC, June 25.—The Irishmen of Quebec and other admirers of Hon. Edward Blake have determined to hold a demonstration here to-morrow on the occasion of his departure for England.

Bicycle Championship.

LONDON, June 25.—Arthur A. Zimmerman, American champion bicyclist, won the mile safety championship at Leeds to-day, beating Schofield, heretofore the champion, by five yards. Time, 2 minutes, 57 4-5 seconds. The five mile also was won by Zimmerman easily by 12 yards, beating the Irish champion Ducross and other notables. Time, 29 1-5.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION

The First Annual Meet of the Methodist Young People's Societies.

A stirring meeting was held in the Centennial Methodist church, Gorge road, yesterday evening, the occasion being the welcome meeting of the first annual convention of the Epworth Leagues and Young People's Societies of the Methodist church in British Columbia.

The following delegates were present and received a hearty welcome from their co-workers of this city:

New Westminster—Miss Williams, Miss Wells, Miss Ogle, Miss Latham, Miss Keightley, Miss McMurphy, Miss Grant, Miss Connors, Miss Nicks, Mr. Henry, Mr. Cooksley.

Vancouver—Miss Doherty, Miss Barritt, Miss Wood, Miss Cole, Miss Eldridge, Miss Marsden, Mr. Clubb.

Nanaimo—Mr. F. V. Hobb, Mr. Spear, Mrs. Spear, Mr. P. Williamson, Miss Glenn.

Sumas and Chilliwhack—Mr. E. Michener, Miss McGillivray.

The meeting was opened with singing and prayer, after which Rev. Geo. H. Morden, of Victoria West, outlined the objects of the convention, the uniting of forces to attain greater results and the meeting together for an interchange of methods and experiences. For his congregation he extended a hearty welcome to the visitors and hoped the convention would result in great good to the whole province.

On behalf of the members of the Pandora avenue Methodist church, Mr. Ed. Lewis also gave a happy address of welcome. Messrs. P. P. Cooksley of New Westminster, P. Williamson of Nanaimo, and W. Clubb of Vancouver, replied on behalf of the societies which they represented, expressing the belief that the results which would flow from friendly co-operation must necessarily be beneficial, and hoped they would be able to reciprocate the kindness of the Victoria young people when it came to their turn to welcome the delegates to conventions in their cities.

The convention proper opened this morning in the Centennial church, there being present a good representation of members of the local Epworth Leagues as well as the visitors. After devotional exercises, Rev. J. H. White was elected president, pro tem., and Wm. Clubb, of Vancouver, secretary. The following committees were then appointed:

Organization—W. W. Hall, W. W. Weeks, Rev. W. W. Baer, Miss Williams, Miss Glen, Miss Rae, Miss Langdale, Rev. Coverdale Watson, George H. Grant.

Nomination Committee, composed of the President and a delegate from each league represented at the convention.

Religious Work—Rev. C. Watson, Rev. G. H. Morden, Miss Wells, Mr. Lewis, Miss Dunnington.

Finance—E. Lewis, R. Michener, A. W. Thompson.

Miss Ogle was delegated to give reports of the proceedings to the Epworth League organ, and to the Guardian.

Reports from the various leagues were then read and received. They all reported good work being done, and interest in the organization as well as membership increasing.

Mr. G. H. Grant, of New Westminster, read an interesting paper on "Our Responsibility to Our Associate Members," which was discussed at some length. The general opinion expressed that it was one of the first objects of the league to get young people to connect themselves with the organization, and individual effort should then be made to secure their active co-operation in the work of the Master.

CAMP MEETING TO-NIGHT.

The committee on religious work reported that the services in the several churches to-morrow would be under the direction of the pastors. Also that a mass meeting would be held in the Pandora Avenue Methodist Church at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, to be addressed by E. Lewis, Rev. W. W. Baer, of Nanaimo Miss Bowes, and Prof. E. Odlum, of Vancouver. The committee also recommended that a camp meeting be held this evening at Oak Bay at the conclusion of the Epworth League picnic held there; the meeting to be conducted by Rev. W. W. Baer, of Nanaimo.

The report was amended substituting the name of W. Cooksley for that of Rev. W. W. Baer, the latter gentleman not being able to attend.

CHURCH SERVICES.

The ministers present announced the services for to-morrow as follows, and invitations were extended to the visiting delegates to attend at their pleasure:—

Centennial Church — Morning services by Rev. W. W. Baer; evening, by memorial services, Rev. J. H. White.

Pandora Avenue—Morning services by Rev. C. Watson; evening, Rev. W. W. Baer.

Victoria West—Morning and evening by Rev. G. H. Morden.

The convention then adjourned to meet Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

PICNIC THIS AFTERNOON.

This afternoon the young people of the leagues and their friends in goodly numbers took the tram cars for Oak Bay, where a picnic was held. The old idea that religion prevents people from having a good time, does not apply in these days, judging from the manner in which they enjoyed their outing.

THE BRITISH CAMPAIGN.

Balfour Issues His Manifesto to the Electors Comments on Gladstone's Address.

LONDON, June 24. — Mr. Balfour's election address was given out to-day. It claims practically everything in sight. It calls for a warm and ungrudging endorsement of the Government policy at home and abroad; denounces Home Rule and Mr. Gladstone's attitude toward that question, and promises many labor reforms—most notably old age pensions. The address, substantially, is as follows:—Through six eventful years the Unionist party has stood between the people and the manifold injustice, dangers and absurdities of any scheme of Home Rule. Every year's experience has freshly justified our hostility, while the ambiguous and hesitating modifications by which the Separatists have endeavored to soften the crudities of their original proposals, seem to make Home Rule even more unjust and absurd. Criticism on a scheme which the authors have not placed clearly before us cannot be complete; but an Irish parliament, controlling an Irish executive parliament, and, so far as the security of the Loyalists is concerned, the promised supremacy of the Imperial Parliament, would be a sham Government; while the Dublin Parliament and Irish Westminster would produce intolerable consequences. Such a condition would be greatly unjust to England, and cruelly oppressive to the minority in Ireland. The characters of Irish politicans and their objects in view of their criminality and their methods, are matters of common knowledge, and to those men Mr. Gladstone proposes to hand the helpless minority. The Unionist has a different policy. He recognizes that as a community grows, it is necessary to modify its laws. "We claim," he says, "more beneficent legislation for this Parliament than for any previous Parliament in the settlement of local government in England, and its extension to Ireland." In conclusion, Mr. Balfour claims that the Unionists are the party from which the laboring man has received the most and may expect more. Their policy, he says, is to encourage thrift in whatever old age pension scheme they may introduce, and he promises the introduction in Parliament of such a scheme. Their policy is to improve the condition of the poor. In case the subject of the amendment of the Registration law comes up, he says, the redistribution of Parliamentary representation must first be considered.

LONDON, June 24.—The Standard, Tory organ, says: "There is hardly a passage in Mr. Gladstone's address to his constituents which can ruffle Unionist complacency. Many of the paragraphs are distinct with dignity and pathos, but these are not of combative complexion." The Times says: "The address is common-place both in manner and matter, and not the aggressive statement that was expected as a platform for the Separatists."

BADLY RECEIVED.

Joseph Chamberlain and Explorer Stanley Hooted on the Platform.

LONDON, June 24.—Joseph Chamberlain tried to address a meeting at Coventry, this evening, on the questions of the campaign. The meeting was disorderly beyond all precedent and several times was on the verge of riot. Mr. Chamberlain had uttered but a few sentences when a butcher rose and shouted, "Three cheers for Gladstone!" Cheers and hisses greeted this proposal. Mr. Chamberlain flushed angrily, and, raising his arm, stepped forward as if to address the disturbers. Nobody heard what he said, but the Radicals who had packed the back part of the hall began to hoot and jeer, and several fights were started. The police were called in, and after ten minutes restored order. Mr. Chamberlain then proceeded without interruption for about five minutes. A statement to the effect that the Gladstonians had no monopoly of liberalism was answered with cries of "Turncoat" and "Traitor," and, in an instant, the meeting was again in an uproar. Mr. Chamberlain shouted angrily, but his voice was hardly audible. Somebody threw a cabbage head. It did not reach the platform, but fell in the crowd just in front of the speaker. Mr. Chamberlain turned and spoke a few words to the chairman and the latter told the officers in charge to eject all disorderly persons. The constables ejected 17 amid great confusion. Mr. Chamberlain proceeded. When he first began speaking of his friendship for the laboring man, pandemonium again broke loose and five men were thrown out by the police; after two more similar attempts, during which Mr. Chamberlain exhorted the constables to turn out the disturbers without ceremony or hesitation, he left the platform abruptly. He was completely exhausted by his efforts to be heard and the excitement of the occasion. He was assisted half fainting to a carriage. The police then cleared the hall.

Henry M. Stanley's first effort to capture the suffrages of the costermongers in North Lambeth was a failure. From the beginning to the end of the indoor meeting, which he proposed to address this evening, confusion was supreme. The rough and ready element, which is strong in the North Lambeth neighborhood, had complete control of the meeting, and despite the presence of Mrs. Stanley, did not hesitate to insult and abuse the speaker. Mr. Stanley's appearance on the platform was the signal for shuffling and suppressed groaning at the rear of the hall. When he was introduced there was a roar of laughter, mingled with yells. For the first ten minutes he was unable to make himself heard. For a short time Mr. Stanley maintained his complacency under the face of adverse comment, then he became embarrassed and began to lose his temper.

The disturbance increased with Mr. Stanley's confusion, until nothing could be heard except hooting and taunting. Stanley stopped talking and glared fiercely at the mob. Mrs. Stanley burst into tears, twice rose to her feet and then sank into her seat. Her evident distress had considerable effect upon the shouters, and they began to calm down. Before Mr. Stanley could resume his speech, she sprang to her feet and cried: "When all of you and I are dead and forgotten then the name of Stanley will live, revered and loved." These words were followed by a burst of laughter and cries of "shame!" The police ejected four men and constables were stationed around the hall. When order was partly restored, Mr. Stanley resumed his address. Despite further interruption, he said apparently all he had come to say. A vote of confidence was barely carried and the meeting closed in an uproar.

CANADIAN NOTES.

News by Mail and Wire from all Parts of the Dominion.

The Conservative club of Montreal has passed a resolution regretting that the government did not consider the representation of the club regarding the redistribution of the Montreal districts.

W. M. Charles, private banker, Chicago, arrived in Toronto and caused the arrest of John McMartin, of that city, who was recently in Chicago, on three charges of forgery. The amount involved is about $600.

An interview with Mercier in the New York Herald recently attributed to the ex-premier the statement that the Canadian people were "a lot of curs." Le Canadien makes an authoritative denial that Mercier ever used the words.

Ike Mulder, a notorious colored outlaw, who for the past five years has terrorized the people of Colchester South, was arrested in that township by a posse of constables. He was wanted on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

Rev. Andrew Hunter Dunn, vicar of All Saints, South Acton, England, was elected Bishop of Quebec by the synod on the fourteenth ballot. Bishop Hamilton of Niagara, received but a few votes less. Rev. Mr. Dunn has cabled his acceptance.

Reports received from all parts of the Province of Ontario show that the recent rains have, on the whole, been of benefit to the crops and the prospect of good crops is even brighter than reported recently. In some localities where the rain was excessive the fall wheat will be rusty and may not fill out well.

W. K. Muir, formerly general manager of the Great Western Railway of Canada, died Thursday in Detroit of inflammation of the brain. His health had been bad for some time and he had just returned from a trip to Japan and British Columbia. At the time of his death he was President and General Manager of the Eureka Steel Works, Detroit, and of the Star line of steamships. He leaves an estate valued at over a million dollars.

The resolutions respecting direct taxation, also the bills respecting lunatic asylums, reformatory and industrial schools, passed their third readings in the Quebec legislature and prorogation took place yesterday afternoon. In addressing the members the Lieutenant-Governor congratulated them on having given the financial situation such a careful consideration, and expressed the hope that the new sources of revenue would soon establish the equilibrium between the revenue and the expenditure and restore credit to the province.

The 14th annual convention of the Roman Catholic Knights of St. John of America began in Toronto yesterday morning. The organization is a benevolent, social and religious one. It has 207 commanderies with a membership of 13,000 and is quite prosperous. Archbishop Walsh, of Toronto, is Supreme Spiritual Adviser; Frank H. Bradley, of Cincinnati, Supreme President; W. T. Garrin, of Grand Rapids, Mich., Grand Commander, and a large number of members are in the city. At 7 o'clock yesterday morning they met at St. Michael's Cathedral, where Bishop Walsh celebrated Mass and delivered an address. At 10 o'clock there was a public reception in the Horticultural pavilion. In the afternoon the grand parade took place, and was witnessed by an immense throng of people. The knights were formed in six divisions and proceeded through the principal streets to the baseball grounds, where the reviewing stand was erected. After the parade the prize drill took place. Commanders are present from Pittsburg, Rochester, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Detroit, Grand Rapids and other American cities. Several false fire alarms were rung during the parade, with the object of breaking up the procession, but it did not succeed.

Joseph Chamberlain's Brother.

LONDON, June 24.—A sensation has been caused in Parliamentary circles by the discovery that Richard Chamberlain, Unionist M.P. for West Islington, has been acting as chairman of a select committee of the House of Commons, in a matter in which he has a direct personal interest. Richard Chamberlain is one of Joseph Chamberlain's two brothers, and is four years younger than Joseph. He is an earnest opponent of Home Rule, while at the same time claiming to be a Liberal in politics. The Hull Docks scheme has excited a great deal of controversy between opposing interests, and a select committee of the House of Commons was appointed to inquire into the merits of the scheme and of the opposition to it. Richard Chamberlain was made chairman, and, in accord with Parliamentary regulation, made an affidavit when he joined the committee that he had no interest in the subject to be considered. It has now been discovered that he is largely interested in the North Eastern Railway, which is the most influential opponent of the scheme. The promoters of the scheme having ascertained this fact, drew attention to it to-day. Mr. Chamberlain thereupon withdrew from the committee, after consulting the Speaker of the House. The promoters declined under the circumstances to proceed with the hearing and a deadlock followed. At length the remaining members of the committee voted to throw out the bill providing for the Hull Docks scheme. The disappointed promoters hint at a rigorous inquiry.

Round the World in Seventy Days.

On Saturday evening, March 19, a postcard was sent from London via the C.P.R. to Hong Kong, and reached there by the steamer Empress of India on April 28. Three hours after its receipt an answer on a return card was posted by the P. & O. Mail, and this was delivered in London on the evening of May 30, the time occupied in transmission round the world being 70 days, the quickest time on record.

HOOD'S

Sarsaparilla

Mr. R. J. Brundage of Norwalk, Ct., of the firm of Buxton & Brundage, expressmen, 159 Main Street, writes his experience below:

"For a long time I have been troubled with a weak stomach, followed by

Indigestion and Dyspepsia

A short time ago I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and took three or four bottles. Result, I have not felt so well all over for years. My food seldom troubles me now. My sister, who was troubled about the same way as myself, took Hood's Sarsaparilla with very pleasing results. I do not wonder that patrons all along the line speak so well of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Don't see how they can help it." R. J. BRUNDAGE, Norwalk, Ct.

Mr. B. H. Rose

Is well known in Rochester, N. Y., as head of the firm of Rose & Eddy, wholesale and retail dealers in general hardware and house furnishing goods, at 137 East Main Street. The statement of so prominent a man must

Command Attention

"I send this unsolicited as I feel to congratulate myself that I used Hood's Sarsaparilla. Six months ago my digestion was very bad, and I had almost a case of

Chronic Dyspepsia

I was also broken down by over-work, so that I could not sleep nights. My stomach is now perfect, my nerves in excellent shape, and I have gained 10 pounds in 6 months. For all this benefit my gratitude is due Hood's Sarsaparilla. Accept my best wishes for the best medicine in the land." B. H. ROSE, of Rose & Eddy, Rochester, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

HOOD'S PILLS act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the liver and bowels, cure headache.

In connection with our Engineering and Surveying Department, we are opening up an office at Nelson, in the now famous Kootenay District, for the purpose of handling Real Estate and Mining in all its branches. Our partner Mr. M. S. Davys having resided in the Kootenay country for the past five years, and successfully developed valuable mining properties there, is thus able to furnish reliable information as to location and values of properties. We have secured the services of Mr. R. H. Cavill, formerly of Swansea, where he was for five years connected with the Swansea Smelter. Mr. Cavill's practical experience as manager for the past 17 years, in some of the foremost mines and mills in California, Arizona, and Mexico Central America, together with his Swansea experience, gives him a thorough knowledge of the treatment and best methods of working refractory ores.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Surveys and Settlement—Mining Progress—General News.

VERNON.

Vernon is now rated as a distributing postoffice, mails sacks being made up here for points east and west, instead of at Sicamous as formerly.

The S. & O. have agreed to pay $90 per acre for their right of way through the Lawrence property, Swan lake—12½ acres. This is the highest figure paid along the line; only $40 per acre was paid on the Lyons estate.

A survey of the Shuswap settlement will be made by the Government this summer, including all the pre-emption claims taken up within the past year and the remaining land suitable for settlement. Mr. F. H. Latimer, C.E., will be in charge and start out with his part next week.

County court will be held at Vernon on July 13th.

The engineering firm of Perry, Gray & Davys, who have offices in Victoria and Nelson, have decided to open up a branch office at Vernon, with Mr. J. H. Gray, C.E., in charge.

The Vernon News says it has the best authority for stating that the commonage lands will, on the completion of the survey, be thrown open for settlement by pre-emption.

The Chief Commissioner is offering a prize to the "best girl" at the Coldstream school.

A meeting of the Okanagan & Spallumcheen Agricultural Society was held in the schoolhouse, Vernon, on Wednesday. Mr. M. Lumby in the chair. The secretary's resignation was read, and an itemized financial statement showing the funds in hand of the society to be $111.70. Mr. Lumby stated that his intention had been to resign the position of president, but being pressed not to do so, he had consented to continue to act as such. It was then carried unanimously that Mr. W. H. Norris be secretary, that Mr. Lumby act as treasurer, and that Mr. T. Clinton be appointed a director in place of Mr. W. H. Norris.

Geo. Waanacotte, who pleaded guilty to selling whiskey to Indians at Kettle River, was sentenced by Mr. Lumby, S.M., to six months' imprisonment at Kamloops.

The Shuswap has risen over four feet the past few days, between Mabel and Sugar lakes.

OSOOYOS DISTRICT.

The Vernon News says: We understand the government do not intend to appoint a stipendiary magistrate for the lower country at present, but another justice of the peace and an additional constable and collector. Another mining recorder will probably not be appointed till next year, or until it becomes more certain where the principal mining camps east of Osooyos will be located. There is little doubt, however, if sufficient progress is made in either the Boundary creek or Rock creek sections, and population in either or both increases rapidly, that the lower country will be divided into two districts, each having its separate recorder, assessor and collector.

It is understood that Mr. J. H. Gray, C.E., has been appointed superintendent of roads and bridges for the Osooyos division of Yale district.

There are sixteen new settlers on Anarchist mountain—between Osooyos and Myers creek.

The small temporary quartz mill, brought in from Loomiston to the "Wide West," Fairview, has been working one week. The first three days' run realized $80. It has six stamps, but as they only weigh 250 pounds each, it is scarcely up to the mark of an ordinary three-stamp mill. The mill site is below that of the "Rattler," on the same creek.

On the 11th inst. a fire occurred at Moffatt's hotel, Camp Fairview, the stable being entirely consumed together with five tons of hay and oats. A man boarding at the hotel was severely burned trying to escape.

SPALLUMCHEEN.

Hon. Mr. Vernon, when questioned by a Vernon News representative last week, why so apparently an unnecessary delay was occasioned in granting letters patent for the Spallumcheen municipality, stated that the necessary order-in-council would be granted without delay, but probably not to take effect till January 1st, 1893. The reason for this, he explained, was that the Treasury Department were desirous of all letters patent taking effect at the commencement of a new year, enabling newly-created municipalities to commence on a proper basis, without having to refund taxes to the Government or vice versa. The Provincial Government were spending considerable money on public works in Spallumcheen this year and when that had been expended the municipality would be able to raise its own revenue and regulate its expenditure. Mr. Vernon expressed himself strongly in favor of municipal government for the various portions of this district, saying he was at a loss to understand why the people of Vernon were so apathetic in the matter.

NELSON.

J. E. Walsh is down from Nakusp Creek, and reports business booming. He has arranged with the Canadian Pacific Railway and Columbia & Kootenay Navigation Company for through rates for passengers and freight from all points to Eldorado City. People are beginning to go into the Slocan country by the Nakusp trail, which is an easy grade through to the lake.

John Fielding, C.E., P.L.S., has completed the survey of land north and south of Kaslo city, which it is believed will be put on the market by Victoria parties as a townsite. He expects to survey a townsite some four miles up the trail.

The lake has risen so much that boats will soon be unable to make a landing at the centre stage of the Government wharf.

One goat and a band of 200 sheep came in by the Spokane Friday for Messrs. Wilson & Perdue.

Messrs. Charles Roepel, H. E. Croasdaile and J. McDonald came down from Toad mountain on Wednesday. Nothing certain is known of Mr. Roepel's opinion, but judging from appearances, he is very well pleased with the mine.

D. Cartmel, late chief engineer of the Government dock at Esquimalt, whilst steering J. T. Davie's scow slipped, and falling against a piece of cordwood, broke a rib.

C. W. Busk's windmill at Balfour, is now at work.

Nelson had a narrow escape from being wiped out by fire on Wednesday of last week. The contractors at work on street clearing set fire to some brush and logs, and a high wind springing up carried the flames very near to the buildings at several points. The Miner remarks: "So long as the back parts of lots remain uncleared, and contractors are allowed to light fires in streets they are clearing through the centre of the townsite, Nelson can never be said to be out of danger from this cause."

Fishermen who have been in Nelson looking for sport have gone away disgusted, and saying that there no fish either in lake or river. There are, however, lots of trout, but the water is too high and feed too plentiful for them to rise to a fly. In the course of a month or two anyone, with a bent pin and a piece of parcel twine, will be able, in an hour or two, to catch more fish than he can carry. The Chinamen who fish from the government wharf are able with a piece of meat to catch numbers of small white fish, but they have to do a tremendous amount of swearing (in English) for every fish they catch.

Although building in Nelson has not been booming during the past month, a number of buildings have been are being and are about to be built, indicating a steady advance in the requirements of the town.

It has been decided that the name of Eldorado camp is to be changed. What name is to be given is not yet known. The sale of the town lots has been put in the hands of Mr. Jowett, of Jowett & Haig, and will probably take place on the 15th of July, or as soon after that date as possible. The owners of houses built on lots will be allowed compensation for their improvements, and it is probable that houses built on what is now a street will be ranked as if on the lot nearest them, but this is not settled yet. Mr. Jowett will leave for Carpenter creek in a day or two to appraise improvements and arrange about the sale. The upset price of lots has been fixed at $100 and the terms are one half down and the balance in 12 months. But it is possible that this may be altered to one-third down and the balance in 6 and 12 months.

AINSWORTH.

It is understood that parties are now in the camp negotiating for the purchase of the Highlander. This is one of the oldest as well as one of the best locations in the camp.

The road to the Neosho will be finished in about four days. The machinery for this mine is now at Bonner's Ferry. Superintendent Wallace will leave shortly to clear it through the customs.

Henry A. McMurrow, of Philadelphia, is taking in the camp in the interests of American capitalists.

KASLO.

David Porter and E. A. Bielenberg have located two claims, the Anglo-Saxon and the Celt, on Watson Creek fork of Carpenter Creek. Some of the ore sent down here looks promising. They report the lead to be a fine fissure vein in granite.

Two survey parties left on Wednesday to locate the railroad line from the forks of Kaslo River to this town. Messrs. Keene and Fielding will be the engineers in charge.

The trail is now all but through to the Noble Five. The grades have given no serious trouble.

The town is building up at a great rate. On Front street Mahoney's hotel and Coy's building are now under construction, and three other buildings are being started. Devlin & McKay are putting up a hotel 24x60 feet next to Kane's hotel, H. Giegerich is building a store 24x50 feet with a warehouse 24x26 feet on lot 19 in block 8, and H. Baum has started a four-storey house 24x50 feet on the next lot to Coy's. Harrocks & Rice, assayers, are building on A avenue a two-storey 24x50 store, and Mr. Fletcher has put up a barber shop on Fourth street behind the Grand Central hotel.

Sale of Steamers & Scows
MORTGAGEE'S SALE
AT VANCOUVER,
SATURDAY, JULY 2nd, AT 12 NOON.
I have been instructed by the Mortgagee to sell at Vancouver, in the new McConnell block, opposite Rand Bros., Cordova street, the following property, namely:
The Screw Tug VANCOUVER, 72 feet long, 13 feet 7 inches beam, 5 feet 2 inches depth of hold; registered tonnage, 33.96 tons; fitted with Doty vertical condensing engine (cylinder 12x14 inches).
The Screw Tug SWAN, 42 feet long, 9 feet 5 inches beam, 4 feet 1 inch depth of hold, fitted with upright high pressure Doty engines (cylinders 6½x8 inches); registered tonnage 11.49 tons.
One Scow numbered 1, 80x24 feet; One Scow numbered 2, 60x20 feet; One Scow numbered 5, 88x26 feet; One Scow numbered 6, 66x22 feet; One Scow numbered 7, 60x22 feet.
This is a good chance of buying into a well established and paying business, as there are all the requisites for towing of logs or coal without any further expenditure. The Steamer Vancouver is well known as a powerful Tug Boat.
Terms of sale, cash.

A GRIT TRAITOR.

Some unregenerate "Grit" has been finding his way into the pages of the Westminster Review. At least the June number of that periodical contains an unsigned article, headed "Cross Currents of Canadian Politics," which the Tory press will at once credit to some member of the opposite party. If the writer is not a "Grit" he commits the unpardonable offence of very largely agreeing with "Grit" opinions in regard to the present political condition of this country of ours, a rather depressing picture of which he presents to the readers of Westminster. This condition he ascribes to various causes, the first of which is the unconsolidated and unassimilated population, "neither distinctly Britons nor exclusively Canadians." Then "another element conducing to this lack of a general and high-toned patriotism is the hard struggle for existence which has for many years past taxed the whole energies of the great body of people, especially of the farming population." The severity of the struggle is in this writer's estimation largely due to the policy of "protection," which is certainly a very audacious thing to say, and that right in the columns of the Westminster Review. He also adds to the offence by advocating the continental trade policy of the Liberals. Of the disabilities imposed by restriction in general and of restrictions on trade with the States in particular, this writer says:—

To suppose a "barbed wire fence" of custom houses erected between England and Scotland would be a parallel falling far short of the fact; for Canada and the United States "march," not for two or three hundred miles of border but for thousands of miles. The American continent is, indeed, by nature, one great country; its northern and southern portions being in the fullest sense complementary of each other, so far as natural products are concerned. There is no natural line of demarcation, and did no fictitious line exist, such a thing would be thought absurd; but, as it is, the United States and Canada divide the North American continent into two nearly equal areas, at present separated, to the loss and detriment of both, by mutually hostile tariffs.

And when we add to the tantalizing tariff restrictions the burdens imposed by the Canadian protective system—in taxing the implements the farmer uses, the clothes he wears, the light he burns, even the seed he sows, if in order to procure an improved variety he should cross the border for it—it is not to be wondered at that so many good farms are mortgaged to such an extent as no longer to deserve the name of freeholds, that so many farmers find it hard to keep their heads above water, and that so large a proportion of our most hopeful young men find it easier to cut the knot by crossing the border and annexing themselves, as natural citizens, to the United States, thus becoming lost to Canada, than to remain in their own country and continue to struggle to secure better conditions of life and labor at home.

This "Grit" heresy is backed up by references to the sugar tax, the coal oil tax, the tax on books, the taxes on iron, etc., all of which are essential features of the N.P. and should not be used to point a "Grit" argument. But even worse than his talk about protection is the attempt made by the writer in the Westminster to show that the Tory Government has systematically practised corruption, and that by so doing it has very much lowered the tone of our politics. He brings forward strong evidence to support this assertion, it is true, but nevertheless he must be a Grit and a traitor. He also takes the treasonable ground that the bad showing made by the census is due to Tory misgovernment and not to any natural drawbacks afflicting the country.

As to the "cross currents" the Westminster article enumerates several, which we can but mention in brief. The first is Unrestricted Reciprocity, of which, as already said, the writer is an admirer. Then come in their order Imperial Federation, Independence and Annexation. There are also two minor "cross currents," one represented by Senator Boulton's free trade propaganda and the other by Mr. Oliver Howland's "New Empire." Each of these currents is discussed in turn with some elaboration. The chief point of the whole affair is the outrageous fact that a traitor and a Grit should be allowed to write thus in the columns of the Westminster Review. We move that he be scented out by the Tory sleuthhounds, and that he then be hanged, drawn and quartered as an example to all such criminals.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

I Observe a great deal of originality about the remarks of passers by on the street with regard to the weather. "Hot," says one; "Yes, very," is the reply. "Hot," says the next. "Hot indeed" (this reproachfully). "I should think so." "Hot," says a third, and a large bandana wipes the perspiration from an injured brow, and language more forcible than polite expresses the gentleman's sentiments.

Generally speaking, tram car attendants are very obliging. The exception sometimes proves the rule. I witnessed an incident that suggests the exception. Two boys wished to get out at a certain point, but being the only passengers the motorneer refused to stop, evidently wishing to complete his journey on time. Only boys, don't you know!

Whatever is the corporation about in not providing Victoria with suitable appliances for sea-bathing? Visitors looking upon the map see that Victoria has splendid little coves and sheltered nooks, and upon arriving here are told there are no facilities for a sea bath. With miles of sea frontage, water as clear as crystal, bays that are absolutely free from tidal dangers and neither public spirit nor private enterprise provides the needful accommodation. I wonder that the Oak Bay Company have not sought to popularize their lands by making it a bathing resort. A breakwater roughly thrown across a portion of the bay would provide plenty of depth and raise the temperature of the water. A few compartments or small dressing rooms erected and an attendant to take the tolls, are all that is necessary to make this resort a very paradise for bathers.

I don't know whether it is the weather or unfulfilled expectations that caused quite suddenly the closing of a newly arrived firm of butchers. Local competitors are making somewhat merry over their disappearance, and jocularly ask who'll pay the piper now? and Quiz meekly bows his head in sad acquiescence.

Expectation and a quiet ripple of subdued happiness was to be seen on the streets to-day and yesterday. Have you heard the news? everybody asked. What news? The Canada Western is all right. Money put up, terms agreed to, and, says one sanguine real estate holder, I have put up my price on some lots 25 per cent.! The sober truth evidently is that a real effort is being made to complete the preliminaries, and wide-awake capitalists are trying to get the inside track of some real estate on the borders of the proposed railway. I heartily wish it were made penal to gamble in lands, as well as in lotteries, but this is dangerously near Single Tax notions, of which all good people should beware.

I feel much sympathy with Calvary Baptist church. I hear that Rev. J. E. Coombs, the popular pastor of the Baptist church, La-Conner, has been obliged to refuse their call. This appears to be the fifth disappointment they have sustained, and many of the good folks are thereby dispirited. A strong effort, however, is to be made to induce him to reconsider his decision.

NEW GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS.

Hon. F. G. Vernon Talks About the Proposed New Legislative Offices.

The Old Buildings to be Gradually Replaced by More Modern Ones.

Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, Hon. F. G. Vernon, was waited upon in his office this morning by a representative of the TIMES, with relation to the rather tall statement in the Daily News about the new Government buildings. The first remark of the honorable gentleman showed that the "organ" was away off again, and very badly this time. The Chief Commissioner looked somewhat annoyed as he said, "Oh, they've got it all mixed up; it's all wrong." He then produced a plan of the buildings and grounds as they are at present and a schedule of instructions sent out to the architects of the country who are to compete in the plans for the new buildings. The scheme of the Executive Council is to gradually supply the place of the old-fashioned structures at present existing, with modern buildings, the old ones being removed as the new supply their places. This will, of course, extend over a period of five or six years. The Chief Commissioner illustrated the idea by comparing the undertaking to that of a person who lays out a large garden, and year by year adds to it in one way and another until he can gaze upon "one harmonious whole." This is exactly the plan of the Government; the sum to be expended on the entire buildings not to exceed $500,000 within 10 per cent., although that amount may never be spent upon them.

"Some of the officer, particularly the Lands and Works Department, are very much cramped for room," said Mr. Vernon. "This building is only a shell; we urgently require a vault for the safe keeping of deeds, agreements, and other valuable papers. The present one in the court house building is much too small. You see on the map here, the new building could be erected on one of those vacant spaces and so not interfere with the work, which, of course, cannot be interrupted. Then after the new building was erected, this old one could be cleared away and the site prepared for another. There is no accommodation here for receiving the large deputations which are constantly coming; and the clerks are scattered all over the place, making it impossible to keep track of them and their work. To be sure some of the present buildings are good enough for their requirements, and will do probably for a year or two longer, but the Lands and Works department needs increased facilities for its work more than any of the others. The legislature has voted the preliminary grant, $75,000, for this purpose. As to the plans, the competition is open to the continent, and architects in all parts of the United States and Canada will compete. The Government wants the best for the money; the best plans will be chosen, be they local or foreign. Two non-competing architects and myself are to be the judges. Out of the forty or fifty competitors the five best will be selected, who will elaborate their ideas, and will receive therefore an honorarium of $750 each. From the best one will be selected, and he will have charge of the construction."

The schedule of instructions to the architects contains all kinds of information they could desire for intelligently drawing their plans. The rate of wages, price of material, quality of soil, etc.; are given, also the particulars regarding the extent and style of buildings required.

"These buildings," continued the Chief Commissioner, "are not being erected to meet simply the needs of the present, but for the certain expansion of business in the future."

The general arrangement and disposition of the component parts of the buildings must be with a view to convenience in the use for which they are designed. Security against fire, modern improvements in ventilation, and mode of heating and lighting must be provided. Existing buildings, which are shown on the ground plan, must not be interfered with during the construction of the new ones. The rooms to be provided for the offices should have a floor space of not less than 300 square feet. The public offices and clerks' rooms must be ample for the service required. The architect may add spare rooms for future needs wherever space will permit.

VICTORIA'S UNSAFE BRIDGES.

People Who Cross the Point Ellice and Gully Bridges do so at Their Own Risk.

The Gully and the Point Ellice bridges are both in an unsafe condition, but carriages continue to go over them. There are three rotten timbers in the Point Ellice bridge, one of which has sunk three inches. The cars continue to run over, the passengers, however, being required to walk over. The city engineer says the members of the street committee are considering whether they will replace the rotten timbers with wooden or iron beams. With iron beams the bridge would stand for many years. They have been considering for a couple of weeks and in the meantime passengers go over the bridge with their hearts in their mouths.

The Gully bridge is not as bad as the one at Point Ellice, but it is nevertheless unsafe. According to the engineer, a new bridge, wider and higher than the old one, is required. He says it would be very costly to fill in the ravine.

A gentleman who frequently crosses the bridge in question says he is expecting to hear of an accident at any minute. If something is not done immediately both bridges will have to be closed at one time and then good-bye to any drives around the Gorge for some time to come.

True Happiness.

True happiness comes not from the outward world about us, not even from the mind, but from the heart, and perfect happiness is found while playing the popular Bush & Girt's piano. T. W. Fletcher, sole agent, 87 Fort St.

A New Sawmill.

Mr. Frank McLeod has purchased a sawmill plant and intends to erect a mill on his property at Chemainus. He has some fine timber limits. The mill will be running this fall.

Broken Plate Glass.

Some evily disposed person, or a very bad shot, threw a stone through one of the plate glass windows in the store of B. Williams & Co., Johnson street. Who threw the stone is not known. The glass was insured.

Washout on the S. & O.

Mr. Geo. Riley, of the S. & O. Railway, arrived from the interior last evening. He reports a washout near Vernon, caused by a log jam being cleared. The damage could not be prepared until the water stopped running.

Dr. Campbell Welcomed.

The young people of the First Presbyterian Church met last evening for the purpose of welcoming their new pastor, Rev. Dr. Campbell. There was a large attendance. A vote of thanks was tendered Rev. D. MacRae for the interest he had taken in the church during the absence of a pastor.

Left For England.

Messrs. Glendowe and Rose, the Behring sea commissioners, have left for England. They will take their time going across the continent, and sail for England on the Parisian next month. They have gone through all the claims, but whether they have cut them down or not no one knows.

McLennan & McFeely vs. Pandora Avenue Methodist Church, for examination and discovery. Order made.

Dooley vs. Nelson & Grant, for examination of defendants. Order made.

McPherson vs. Ames, Holdon & Co., extension of time. Order made.

From the North.

The steamer Danube arrived from the north yesterday afternoon after a pleasant trip. The northern canneries have commenced work, McLellan's cannery having put up 850 cases before last Saturday night. The Danube brought down 10,000 gallons of oil from the Skidegate oil works, Queen Charlotte, and also some Indian curios for the World's Fair.

Excursion to Seattle.

The steamer Islander, Capt. Irving, left for Seattle this morning with an excursion party. The excursion was given by the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the R. C. Cathedral, who will be well repaid for their trouble. The Islander touched on a rock going out, the tide being extremely low. She was pulled off by the Danube and the Sadie without receiving any damage.

Impure Water.

At this season the greatest care should be exercised in obtaining pure water, which can be done only by using a first class filter. Owing to the large demand for these goods during the last week, the Sehl-Hast.e-Erskine Co., have obtained a complete line of silicated carbon filters in all sizes and shapes at prices which put them within reach of all. Inspection solicited.

Extra Steamer.

The Puget Sound and Alaska Steamship Company will put the City of Seattle on the Victoria-Sound route with the Kingston during the 4th of July celebration at Seattle and Tacoma. The Seattle will leave here Sunday morning, arriving at Seattle on Sunday afternoon. She will leave here again on Monday morning, returning after the fireworks. Tickets for the round trip will be sold at single fare, good until the 6th of July.

Presbyterian S.S. Picnic.

This morning at 9 o'clock about 150 of the scholars who attend the Sunday school of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, accompanied by their parents and a large number of friends, assembled at the E. & N. Railway station and were soon carried to the Langford Plains, where all the festivities of a basket picnic were indulged in. At 11 o'clock and 2 o'clock a couple of hundred additional picnickers were taken to the plains, and everybody seemed bent on having a good time. The Maple Leaf baseball boys mustered two nines to play games with the Orange Leafs and the Oakdales.

Great Fun.

The water toboggan near Dead Man's island is doing great business this weather. The water is perfect for bathing, almost too warm for the vigorous bathers who affect Beacon Hill rocks occasionally, but still very enjoyable. The toboggan slide provides great sport for those who take part and those who look on. In the evening there is generally a large assemblage of boats well loaded with passengers. The tobogganists, as a general rule, can manage the toboggans fairly well and get a long way out on the water before sinking. Others, however, who are not au fait take an early header off the sled, much to the amusement of the crowd.

Not Ready Yet.

Another large crowd went out to see the San Pedro raised last night, but were disappointed. The public should be made aware of the fact that there is no expectation of raising the vessel before the end of the present month. The gentlemen in charge of the work are not responsible for the wild rumors which have been flying around to the effect that the boat would be raised this or that day. The terrific piece of sarcasm in the Colonist yesterday was therefore only vapor, as there was not the slightest ground for so much Thackarayan wit. The contractors have their own schemes to follow out, and are not paying any heed to talk. The San Pedro will come up when the contractors are ready, and probably not before

The Coquitlam.

The sealers' charter for the steamer Coquitlam expires on the 4th of July, and it was expected that she would be back by that time. It is almost certain, however, that she will be a few days if not a week late.

Low Pressure.

The fire hydrants in the different part of the city were tested to day. It was found that the pressure is very low and the chief of the fire department therefore requests the citizens to turn off their water when the bell rings.

Be Home This Evening.

Mr. F. Hinds, who has been attending a meeting of the executive of the Northwestern Firemen's Association will return home on the City of Kingston this evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of arranging for the annual tournament.

Alberni.

The sale of Alberni property at No. 40, Yates street, will be continued from Saturday to Monday evening. Alberni is coming to the front fast, and considering its great attractions it is not surprising. Lots there ought to be a good investment.

Testing the Machinery.

The engines of the steamer Joan was tried to-day, the result proving satisfactory to the chief engineer. A pressure of 110 pounds of steam was tried, producing 140 revolutions of the propellers to the minute. The engines were tested in every way, forward, backing, slowing, stopping and starting, turning, one screw backing, the other going forward. The boat will be fast as well as seaworthy.

Saturday Afternoon Picnics.

Another large contingent of picnickers betook themselves to the Gorge this afternoon, in barges, steam launches, boats and canoes. The number who went up is the greatest so for this season. All along the Arm the various encampments could be seen, the hampers containing the good things being unpacked, and Tom, Dick and Harry making themselves generally useful spreading the tablecloth, opening bottles, sardine cans and so forth. The bathers were not few.

Kelp Reef Beacon.

The Sir James Douglas, Captain Walbran, proceeded to Kelp Reef yesterday and made a thorough examination of the shore. The north-eastern rock is the one selected upon which the stone beacon is to be placed. The rock dries about two feet at low water, springs. On Monday the Douglas will make a visit to the Reef and fasten in the rock two large eye-bolts, with which to moor the scow while working at the beach, a very strong tide running past the rock. No further work can be done there these spring tides, as the water of an ordinary one does not leave the rock bare.

July 4th at Tacoma and Seattle.

For July 4th celebrations at Seattle and Tacoma the Puget Sound and Alaska steamship company will provide a double steamer service from here. Besides the City of Kington's regular trips, the City of Seattle will leave here at 7:30 Sunday morning, July 3rd, and at 6:30 Monday morning, July 4th. Breakfast will be served on board both Sunday and Monday mornings at 8 o'clock. Returning, City of Seattle will leave Tacoma and Seattle evening of July 4th after the fire works, reaching Victoria early Tuesday morning.

Errata.

In the minority report of the fisheries commission published in the TIMES there were two unfortunate omissions. The absence of the little word "not" in the 8th paragraph made the Commissioner say that the canner would be at the mercy of the individual fisherman if licenses were issued indiscriminately. The paragraph should have read, "would not be at the mercy of," etc. The ninth paragraph should read that salmon "cannot be taken in any other way than with the seine, at Nimpkish river and Rivers Inlet," instead of that they could be taken in other ways.

Cedar Hill School.

The closing examination of the Cedar hill school took place on Friday forenoon, a large number of parents and friends being present. The school room had been beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers. The exercises consisted principally of an examination of the pupils upon the work of the past term, a number of well rendered recitations being interspersed. Speeches were made by Rev. D. McRae and trustees Irvine, McRae and King. The first named gentleman spoke particularly of the thoroughness of the educational training received at this school. All expressed themselves as well pleased with the work done both by teacher and pupils. The following pupils received rolls of honor: Punctuality and regularity, Christoper McRae and Archibald McRae, equal. Deportment, Claravella Ettershank. Proficiency, Mary A. White. In the afternoon the pupils and friends picniced on the adjoining ground.

THE SECRET SOCIETIES.

The Members of the Masonic Grand Lodge Banquetted at the City of Nanaimo.

The Supreme Lodge Officers A. O. U. W. Elected at Helena—Notes of Other Societies.

The societies, with the exception of the Masons, have a quiet week to report. The Grand Lodge meeting of the latter, held at Nanaimo, has made it a little livelier than usual for them. A great many members went up, some to remain during the whole session and others for only one or two days. Those who remained were banquetted last evening by the members of Ashlar lodge. The bill of fare was a most elaborate one, and after the eatables had been partaken of the company proceed to the toasts. "The Queen and Royal Family" was responded to by the assembly rising and singing the National Anthem. "The Grand Lodges of British Columbia" by W. Bro. Leighton, was responded to by M. W. Bro. Downie. "Sister Grand Lodges" by R. W. Sebree Clarke, was responded to by various representatives, among them Rev. McLaren, who eulogised Past Grand Master Wolfe for the satisfactory manner in which he filled the position during the past year. "Our Sister Lodges of this Jurisdiction," by M. W. Bro. M. Wolfe, was responded to by the delegates. "Visiting Brethren," by Bro. W. H. S. Perkins. "Our Departed Brethren," by R. W. Bro. Bate. "Tyler's Toast," by Bro. Trickey. "The Ladies," by W. Bro. L. R. Johnston, was responded to by Bro. Stanley Henderson, and after a few more toasts the event was brought to a close. The menu prepared by host and hostess Peters was very creditable.

The following officers were elected by the Supreme Lodge A.O.U.W. at Helena: Supreme Master, J. E. Burt, Boston; Supreme Foreman, D. H. Shields, Missouri; Supreme Overseer, L. Troy, Illinois; Recorder, M. W. Sacket, Pennsylvania; Receiver, J. J. Acker, New York; Guide, J. A. Eckstein, Minnesota; Watchman, J. Milne, Ontario. The next session will be held in Toronto on the third Tuesday in June, 1893.

Grand Master Leiser of the A.O.U.W. attended the regular meeting of Sullivan lodge held last evening. He reported upon the proceedings of the Supreme Lodge meeting at Helena, and made a few remarks in regard to the growth of the order in British Columbia. The older lodges will pay a fraternal visit to Sullivan Lodge, at the next meeting to be held on the second Friday in July. Past Grand Master McIlmoyl returned last evening from Helena. The only business done after the departure of Grand Master Leiser was the adoption of the Supreme Master Workman's report. Mr. Burt, of Boston, was elected Supreme Master Workman.

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias meet at Nanaimo on the third Monday in July, the 18th. At the last meeting there were but nine lodges represented, this year there will be fourteen, a gain of five lodges. This speaks well for the gentlemen who have worked so energetically for the order in this province. There will be about forty delegates and nine officers from different parts of the province.

The regular meeting of Sunset Lodge, K. of P., will be held this evening.

The new hall for the Knights of Pythias, in the Duck building, will be ready for occupation about the first of September. When furnished it will be one of the handsomest on the coast, the committee having the arrangements in charge having taken a great deal of trouble to see that everything is of the very best. The contract for the furniture has been awarded to the Sehl-Has-Erskine furniture company, the price being over $3000. The furniture is to upholstered with silk plush. Weiler Bros. will supply the carpets which are to cost an additional $400. There are to be two gas and electric light chandaliers of 12 lights each, and eight additional lights around the hall. The main hall is 61 feet long by 42 feet, besides which there are nine ante rooms.

The delegates to the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M., have returned home.

PUT ON THE WHOLE ARMOR OF GOD.

Dr. Talmage Speaks of His Approaching Departure to Europe for His Holidays.

He Advises His Congregation to Take Jesus Christ for a Model in Life.

BROOKLYN, June 12.—Dr. Talmage prefaced his sermon this morning with a statement to the effect that he would sail on Wednesday next for Europe, and might be able to be present at the distribution in the famine districts of Russia of The Christian Herald relief cargo, consisting of three million pounds of flour and other supplies which goes out this week on the steamship Leo, chartered for the purpose. He congratulated the American people on the generous spirit evinced by this magnificent gift to the starving people. His sermon was from the text, Ephesians vi, 11, "Put on the whole armor of God."

There is in this text a great rattle of shields and helmets and swords. Soldiers are getting ready for battle. We have had recently in this church new enlistments and I shall address myself to those in this and other churches who are putting on the armor of God, and who may feel themselves to be as yet only raw recruits. "Masterly retreat" is a term often used in military circles, but in religion there is no such thing. It is either glorious advance or disgraceful and ignominious falling back. It would be a strange thing if all our anxiety about men ceased the moment they were converted.

You would almost doubt the sanity of that farmer who, having planted the corn and seen it just sprout above ground, should say: "My work is all done. I have no more anxiety for the field." No. There is work for the plow and the hoe, and there must be a careful keeping up of the fences, and there must be a frightening away of the birds that would pillage the field. And I say the entrance upon Christian life is only the implantation of grace in the heart. There is earnest, hard work yet to be done, and perhaps many years of anxiety before there shall be heard the glorious shout of "Harvest home."

The beginning to be a Christian is only putting down a foundation; but after that there are years of hammering, polishing, carving, lifting, before the structure is completed. It takes five years to make a Christian character, it takes twenty years, it takes forty years, it takes seventy years if a man shall live so long. In other words, a man dying after half a century of Christian experience feels that he has only learned the "A B C's" of a glorious alphabet. The next year will decide a great deal in your history, young Christian man; it will decide whether you are to be a burning and shining light of the church, or a spark of grace covered up in a barrel of ashes.

It will decide whether you are to be a strong man in Christ Jesus, with gigantic blows striking the iron mail of darkness, or a bedwarfed, whining, grumbling soldier that ought to be drummed out of the Lord's camp with the "Rogues' March." You have only just been launched. The voyage is to be made. Earth and heaven and hell are watching to see how fast you will sail, how well you will weather the tempest and whether at last, amid the shouting of the angels, you shall come into the right harbor. May God help me this morning to give you three or four words of Christian counsel, as I address myself more especially to those who have just now entered the Christian life.

A HIGH MODEL.

My first word of counsel is, Hold before your soul a very high model. Do not say, "I wish I could pray like that man, or speak like this man, or have the consecration of this one." Say: "Here is the Lord Jesus Christ, a perfect pattern. By that I mean, with God's grace, to shape all my life." In other words you will never be any more a Christian than you strive to be. If you build a foundation twenty by thirty feet you will only have a small house. If you build a foundation one hundred by one hundred feet, you will have a large house. If you resolve to be only a middling Christian, you will only be a middling Christian. If you have no high aspiration in a worldly direction you will never succeed in business.

If you have no high aspiration in religious things you will never succeed in religion. You have a right to aspire to the very highest style of Christian character. From your feet there reaches out a path of Christian attainment which you may take, and I deliberately say that you may be a better man than was Paul or David or Summerfield or Doddridge—a better woman than Hannah More or Charlotte Elizabeth. Why not? Did they have a monopoly of Christian grace? Did they have a private key of the storehouse of God's mercy? Does God shut you out from the gladness and goodness to which they were introduced?

Oh, no. You have just the same promises, just the same Christ, just the same Holy Ghost, just the same offers of present and everlasting love, and if you fall short of what they were—aye, if you do not come up to the point which they reached and go beyond it—it is not because Christ has shut you out from any point of moral and spiritual elevation, but because you deliberately refused to take it.

I admit that man cannot become a Christian like that without a struggle, but what do you get without fighting for it? The fortresses of darkness are to be taken by storm. You may by acute strategy flank the hosts of temptation, but there are temptations, there are evils, in the way that you will have to meet face to face, and it will be shot for shot, gun for gun, grip for grip, slaughter for slaughter. The Apostle Paul over and over again represents the Christian life as a combat.

When the war vessel of Christ's church comes into glory, bringing its crew and its passengers, it will not come in like a North river yacht, beautifully painted and adorned, swinging into the boathouse after a pleasure excursion. Oh, no. It will be like a vessel coming with a heavy cargo from China or India, the marks of the wave and the hurricane upon it—sails rent, riggings spliced, pumps all working to keep her afloat, bulwarks knocked away. I see such a vessel coming, and get out my small boat and push toward her, and I shout: "Ahoy, captain! What are you going to do with those shivered timbers? That was a beautiful ship when you went out, but you have ruined it." "Oh," says the captain, "I have a fine cargo on board, and by this round trip I have made ten fortunes."

So I believe it will be when the Christian soul at last comes into the harbor of heaven. It will come bearing upon it the marks of a great stress of weather. You can see by the very looks of that soul as it comes into glory that it was driven by a storm and dashed in the hurricane; but by so much as the voyage is rough will the harbor be blessed. "If ye suffered with him on earth ye shall be glorified with him in heaven." Aim high. Do not be satisfied to be like the Christians all around about you. Be more than they have ever been for Christ.

An old Arabian king was showing a beautiful sword that had been given him, when one of his courtiers said: "This sword is too short. You cannot do anything with it." Said the king's son: "To a brave man no sword is too short. If it be too short, take one step in advance, and then it is long enough." So I say to any Christian who may feel that he has poor weapons with which to fight against sin and darkness and death: "Advance upon the enemy. In the strength of Christ go forward. God is for you, and if God be for you who can be against you? Remember that God never puts you in battle, but he gives you weapons with which to fight."

ABSTAIN FROM PERNICIOUS ASSOCIATIONS.

My second word of counsel to those who have recently entered upon Christian life is, Abstain from all pernicious associations, and take only those that are useful and beneficent. Stay out of all associations that would damage your Christian character. Take only those associations that will help you. A learned man said, "If I stay with that man Fenelon any longer I shall be a Christian in spite of myself." In other words, there is a mighty power in Christian associations. Now, what kind of associations shall we, as young Christians, seek after? I think we ought to get into company better than ourselves, never going into company worse than ourselves. If we get into company a little better than ourselves, and there are ten people in that company, ten chances to one we will be bettered. If we get into company a little worse than ourselves, and there be ten people in that company, ten chances to one we will be made worse than we were before.

Now, when a young Christian enters the church, God does not ask him to retire from the world. The anchorite that lives on acorns is no nearer heaven than the man who lives on partridge and wild duck. Isolation is not demanded by the Bible. A man may use the world with the restriction of not abusing it. But just as soon as you find any surroundings pernicious to your spiritual interest, quit those associations. This remark is especially more appropriate to the young. Now it is impossible that the young and untroubled should seek their associations with those who are aged and worn out.

As God intended the aged to associate with the aged, talking over the past and walking staff in hand along the same paths they trod thirty, forty and fifty years ago, so I suppose he intended the young chiefly to associate with the young. The grace of God does not demand that we be unnatural. I do not want you to take this caution I have given you as that of a growling misanthrope, hating hilarity. For you must have a spring bow if you want to make the arrow fly. But while this is so, I want you to be especially on guard in this matter and let the religion of Jesus Christ control you in all your associations.

I know young people who have meant well enough, but they have floated off into evil influences and they have associated day by day with those who hated God and despised his commandments, and their characters are all depleted. I can see they are changed for the worse, but they are not aware of it. Oh, young man, come out of that bad association. I do not know what it is. I do not know to what place you may have a private key. I do not know to what place you go without the sanction of those who love you very much. I do not pretend to point out any evil influences, but are there not some surrounding influences that are pernicious to your growth in grace? Stand back from that furnace in which so many young Christians have been destroyed.

In this church there is a large company of young men and young women consecrated to Christ. I know of no better people than they are. Young convert, I invite you into their friendship. Contact with them will elevate you. All hail, young followers of Jesus Christ, my joy and my pride! My heart thrills at every step of your advancement. I talked with you in that hour when you first tried to break from sin, and I now rejoice as I see you putting on the armor of a conflict in which God will give you present and everlasting victory. Stand off from all evil associations. A man is no better than the company he keeps. Go among those who are better than you are, and you will be made better. Go among those who are worse than you are and you will be made worse.

KEEPS ACTIVELY EMPLOYED.

My next word of counsel is that you be actively employed. I see a great many Christians with doubts and perplexities, and they seem to be proud of them. Their entire Christian life is made up of gloom, and they seem to cultivate that spiritual despondency, when I will undertake to say that in nine cases out of ten spiritual despondency is a judgment of God upon idleness. Who are the happy people in the church today? The busy people. Show me a man who professes the religion of Jesus Christ and is idle, and I will show you an unhappy man. The very first prescription that I give to a man when I find him full of doubts and fears about his eternal interest is to go to work for God. Ten thousand voices are lifted up asking for your help. Go and help.

Here is a wood full of summer insects. An axman goes into the wood to cut firewood. The insects do not bother him very much, and every stroke of the ax makes them fly away. But let a man go and lie down there and he is bitten and mauled and thinks it is a horrible thing to stay in the wood. Why does he not take an ax and go to work? So there are thousands of Christians now in the church who go out amid great annoyances in life—they are not perplexed, they are all the time busy; while there are others who do nothing, and they are stung and stung and stung and covered from head to foot with the blotches of indolence and inactivity and spiritual death.

The first thing, then, you have to do, O Christian young man, Christian young woman, is to go to work in the service of the Lord if you want to be a happy Christian. When an army goes out, there are always stragglers falling off here and there, some because they are faint and sick, but a great many because they are afraid to fight and too lazy to march. After awhile the lazy men on the road hear the booming of the guns for hours, and they hear the shout of victory, and a man on horseback comes up and says, "We have won the day!" Then they hasten up. How brave they are after the battle is over. Poor at fighting, but grand at "huzza!" So there are stragglers going after the Lord's host. There come days of darkness and battle. Where are they? We call the roll of the host. They make no answer, but after awhile there comes a day of triumph in the church, and they are all about. "Huzza! huzza! Didn't we give it to them!"

BE FAITHFUL IN PRAYER.

I have another word of counsel to give those who have just entered Christian life, and that is, Be faithful in prayer. You might as well, business man, start out in the morning without food and expect to be strong all that day—you might as well abstain from food all the week and expect to be strong physically as to be strong without prayer. The only way to get any strength into the soul is by prayer, and the only difference between that Christian that is worth everything and that who is worth nothing is the fact that the last does not pray and the other does.

And the only difference between this Christian, who is getting along very fast in the holy life, and this, who is only getting along tolerably, is that the first prays more than the last. You can graduate a man's progress in religion by the amount of prayer, not by the number of hours, perhaps, but by the earnest supplication that he puts up to God. There is no exception to the rule. Show me a Christian man who neglects this kind of duty and I will show you one who is inconsistent. Show me a man who prays, and his strength and his power cannot be exaggerated. Why, just give to a man this power of prayer and you give him almost omnipotence.

This afternoon you will see two Sabbath school teachers. That one does not gain the attention of her class. This one does. What is the difference between them, their intellects being about equal? The first thought only of her own apparel. The other came from great prostration before God in earnest supplication, asking that God's mercy might come upon the school, and that in the afternoon she might gain the attention of those five or six immortals that would be around her. The one teacher has no control over her class. The other sits as with the strength of the Lord God Almighty.

A minister comes into the pulpit. He has a magnificent sermon, all the sentences rounded according to the laws of rhetoric and fine sermonizing, and the truth makes no impression on the hearts of men. People go away and say, "Very beautiful, wasn't it?" A plain man comes into the pulpit. He has been on his knees before God, asking for an especial message that day, and the hearts of men open to the plain truth, the broken sentences strike into their consciences, and, though the people may disperse at the close of the services seemingly without having received any impression, that night voices will be lifted in some household, "Men and brethren, what shall we do to be saved?" Oh, this power of prayer! Pray! Pray!

Another word of counsel I have to give. Be faithful in Bible research. A great many good books are now coming out. We cannot read half of them. At every revolution of the printing press they are coming. They cover our parlor tables and are in our sitting rooms and libraries. Glorious books they are. We thank God every day for the work of the Christian printing press. But I have thought that perhaps the followers of Christ sometimes allow this religious literature to take their attention from God's word, and that there may not be as much Bible reading as there ought to be.

How is that with your own experience? Just calculate in your minds how much religious literature you have read during the year, and then how large a portion of the Word of God you have read and then contrast the two and answer within your own soul whether you are giving more attention to the books that were written by the hand of man or that written by the hand of God. Now you go to the drug store and you get the mineral waters, but you have noticed that the waters are not so fresh or sparkling or healthful as when you get these very waters at Saratoga and Sharon—getting them right where they bubble from the rock. And I have noticed the same thing in regard to the truth of the Gospel; while there is a good deal of refreshment and health of the Gospel of God as it comes through good books, I find it is better when I come to the eternal rock of God's Word and drink from that fountain that bubbles up fresh and pure to the life and the refreshment and the health of the soul.

READ THE BIBLE.

Read the Bible and it brings you into the association of the best people that ever lived. You stand beside Moses and learn his meekness, beside Job and learn his patience, beside Paul and catch something of his enthusiasm, beside Christ and you feel his love. And yet how strange it is that a great many men have given their whole lives to the assaulting of that book. I cannot understand it. Tom Paine worked against that book as though he received large wages, and was inspired by the very powers of darkness, confessing that all the time he was writing he did not have the Bible anywhere near him. How many powerful intellects have endeavored to destroy it. Hume, Bolingbroke, Voltaire have been after it. Ten thousand men now are warring against the truth of God's Word. What do you think of them? I think it is mean, and will prove it. I will prove it is the meanest thing that has ever been done in all the centuries.

There is a ship at sea and in trouble. The captain and the crew are at their wits' end. You are on board. You are an old seaman. You come up and give some good counsel, which is kindly taken. That is all right. But suppose, instead of doing that, in the midst of all the trouble you pick up the only compass that is on board and pitch it over the taffrail? Oh, you say, that is dastardly. But is it as mean as this? Here is the vessel of the world going on with sixteen hundred millions of passengers, tossed and driven in the tempest, and at the time we want help the infidel comes and he takes hold of the only compass and he tries to pitch it overboard. It is contemptible beyond everything that is contemptible. Have you any better light? Bring it on if you have. Have you any better comfort to give us? Bring it on if you have. Have you any better hope? Bring it on if you have, and then you may have this Bible and I shall never want it again.

But I can think of a meaner thing than that, and that is an old man going along on the mountains with a staff in one hand and a lantern in the other. Darkness has come on suddenly. He is very old, just able to pick his way out amid the rocks and precipices, leaning on his staff with one hand and guiding himself with the light in the other. You come up and say: "Father, you seem to be lost. You are a long way from home. "Yes," he replies. And then you take him by the hand and lead him home. That is very kind of you. But suppose instead of that you should snatch the staff from his hands and hurl it over the rocks, and snatch the lantern and blow it out? That would be dastardly, contemptible until there is no depth of contempt beneath it. If you have a better staff, give it to him. If you have a better light, give it to him.

A LIGHT TO OUR FEET.

When God has put the staff of the Gospel in our hands and the lamp of God's word to light our feet, are you going to take from us our only support and our only illumination? I love the sting of the wasp and the rattlesnake better than I do the man who wants to clutch the word of God from my grasp. There are people here who have been reading it a good while. It is a precious book to their souls. It has been so in time of darkness and trouble. There was a soldier who fell in battle, and after he had fallen he said in a feeble voice to his comrade, "Give me a drop." His comrade replied, "There is not a particle of water in my canteen." "Oh," he said, "I didn't mean that. Look in my knapsack and you will find a Bible there. Get out that old Bible and just give me a drop out of that." And his comrade found the Bible and read a few passages. The dying soldier said, "Oh, George, there is nothing like that, is there, for a dying soldier?"

Cling to your Bible! If this Bible should be destroyed, if all the Bibles that have ever been printed should be destroyed, we could make up a Bible right out of this audience. From that Christian man's experience I take one cluster of promises, and from that old Christian man's experience another, I put them all together, and I think I would have a Bible.

You see, my friends, I have not tried to hide the fact that I have large expectation of you who have entered the Christian life. Do not be discouraged. Press on toward the prize, God beside you and heaven before you. Keep your courage up. Look in thirty years from now upon this church. Another man in the pulpit. Other faces in the pews. Another man leading the song. Others carrying around the alms boxes of the church. All changed. Thirty years have gone, and I look into the faces of the people, and I say: "Why, it seems to me I have seen these people somewhere, but I cannot exactly say where. Oh, yes, now I begin to think. These were the converts in 1892 and 1890. Why, how you have changed!"

"Oh, yes," they say, "of course we have changed. Thirty years make a great change." I say, "How many wrinkles there are in your faces!" "Oh, yes," they say, "thirty years make a great many wrinkles." "Have you kept the faith?" "Yes, we have kept the faith." "Where are those people who used to sit in the pew with you." "All gone." Then I say, "Well, I feel lonely; come, let us sing one of the old hymns we used to sing thirty years ago, in 1892, on communion day. Any of you know the old tune? Some one hum it. Yes, that's it, that's it. Now, altogether, let us sing, just as we did in 1892:

"There is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners plunged beneath that flood
Lose all their guilty stains.

"The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away."

A NIGHT OF HORROR.

Engineer Murray, of the Standard, Recounts His Thrilling Experience.

William Murray, the engineer of the steamer Standard, which foundered off Cape Mudge Friday evening, June 17th, arrived in the city last night from Nanaimo. He is the only survivor of the disaster and tells a plain story of the terrible affair.

The Standard left Nanaimo on Friday morning after coaling, with just enough ballast to trim ship comfortably. She ran through rough water all the way north, many of the seas pooping her, but she stood it well. At 6:30 the same evening, when about 500 yards off Cape Mudge, the tide rip struck the steamer and she sheered. The seas beat in the side of the engine room and flooded the vessel, sinking her in about ten seconds. Murray seized his life belt, which hung at the engine room door, and ran on deck. The other four men had their life belts and were trying to clear the boat from the davits. Murray pushed the boat off and as he did so the steamer sank under him. Before Murray could get into the boat it upset and in a moment all hands were struggling for life in the raging sea. Three of them laid hold of the upturned boat, and Wright, the fireman, shouted to Murray to come over and try to right her. The engineer could not reach the boat on account of the rough water, and he saw the men washed off the boat one by one. They started swimming for the shore. After some mountainous breakers had hidden them from sight, Murray heard the deckhand, Fonciere, cry, "Good-bye, boys, I'm gone; I'll take the oar with me." Fonciere was pushing an oar before him at the time. He disappeared and was seen no more. The sea was running mountains high. The fireman and the cook next disappeared, then Captain Carroll, who was swimming with a cork fender. Murray succeeded in securing the covers of the forehatch and tried to swim to Cape Mudge. Failing in the attempt he struck out for the opposite shore about midnight. When half way across day dawned and the sea grew calmer. About 100 yards from the island he was pulled into a canoe by Mr. Edward Small, who had seen Murray and paddled out to rescue him. Murray became insensible when he found himself safe. When he recovered he was in bed and being well cared for. He speaks warmly of the kindness shown him by his rescuer. The Indians did all they could to find the bodies of the four drowned men. Captain Carroll, the last of the four seen by Murray, was drifting southwards when Murray noticed him. There is no chance of his having escaped.

King, a logger, was in camp at the time, about half a mile from the scene of the disaster. He says the storm was one of the worst he ever saw. It was probably the meeting of wind and tide causing such a heavy sea that swamped the Standard. He and a party of Indians were out for three hours searching for the steamer and the crew. They saw none of them.

The lost are Captain Carroll, Wm. Wright, A. C. Fonciere and the Chinese cook. The bodies of Wright and Fonciere were recovered the day after the accident, taken to Comox and buried in the Presbyterian cemetery.

The Standard lies in from 50 to 60 fathoms of water, about quarter of a mile off the Cape. The steamer Maude will try to raise her by means of grappling irons and drag her to shore. Work was to be commenced to-day. Engineer Murray will go up to the scene in a day or two to assist.

CROSSLEY AND HUNTER.

A Letter From the Canadian Evangelists—A Successful Year's Work.

TO THE EDITOR:—As many of the readers of your widely circulated paper are interested in reports of our evangelistic work, we send you a brief account of the meetings for the past ecclesiastical year.

The churches with their pastors in every place joined heartily in the work, hence, no wonder that the Lord gave success to the union services. We have been eight years together in this work, and hope for many more if God spare our lives.

Three union campaigns were held in Ontario, viz., Norwich, Paris and Owen Sound, during August, September and October, 1891. More than a thousand professed saving faith and the work has been permanent. Rev. E. Cockburn, of Paris, wrote us in March, six months after meetings, saying, "The great blessing we received was not a mere passing excitement; so far as I know, all those who have united with the church have been true." In a letter from Rev. G. R. Turk, dated May 9, he says: "I shall never get through praising God for sending you to Owen Sound. About four weeks ago I took over 200 into full membership, which shows the permanent character of your work, if at all looked after."

We spent November, December and January in British Columbia, holding meetings in Victoria, Nanaimo and Kamloops. Great success crowned all meetings in every place, and hundreds joined the various churches. In Nanaimo we went down over 600 feet into the coal mine, and after travelling under the sea for nearly two miles, came up in a bucket in a shaft newly opened on an island. We like British Columbia and her people. A bright future is before the province.

The next two months were spent in the Northwest Territories in Banff, Calgary, Medicine Hat and Moosomin. While in Banff an open air bath was enjoyed for forty-five minutes, while the snow was all around, and the glass registered below zero. These hot sulphur springs are very beneficial to health.

In Calgary Rev. Geo. Dean received into his church one hundred and fifty, and many united with the other churches.

Moosomin is a lively town of 1000 inhabitants. In three weeks just three hundred names of seekers were taken by the secretary of the meetings. Many business and professional men were among the converts.

April was spent in Brandon, Man. The streets were thronged with emigrants to this wheat country. As in other places, so here, the largest places were too small to hold the crowds that thronged to the meetings nightly. This is a great country.

Much as we liked the West, we were pleased to get home again. We left Brandon April 25th, and began meetings in Wingham, Ont., May 1st. The services here were most gracious. The first week's meetings were held in the Methodist church, and the subsequent three weeks' services in the Presbyterian church. The town and community were awakened and hundreds professed conversion. In every place a secretary of the meetings is appointed, who takes the names of those coming into the enquiry room as seekers. These names are entered in a book, which we retain as a precious souvenir of the meetings. A list of the names of enquirers attending the various churches is given the pastors. In this way the converts are looked after, and so the great majority of those whose names are taken unite with the church of their choice. We give below the number of the names of men and women, boys and girls, entered in the secretary's book during the year:

Norwich	365
Paris	335
Owen Sound	328
Victoria	632
Nanaimo	190
Kamloops	46
Calgary	343
Medicine Hat	53
Moosomin	300
Brandon	264
Wingham	518
Total	4074

When we review the past we say with gratitude "What Hath God Wrought."

We were pleased to be able to attend the London Conference, of which we are both members, in our own city, St. Thomas.

We expect to sail for Europe from New York on the 16th inst., and return about the 1st of August. Rev. D. O. Crossley, J. W. Crossley and E. J. Davis, M.P.P., will accompany us.

Many invitations for next conference year have been received, but we will wait till our return before we arrange the year's work.

To the converts and our many Christian friends, let us say:

"Tho' sundered far by faith we'll meet,
Around one common mercy seat."

Fraternally,

COAL

The New Vancouver Coal Mining & Land Co., L'd.

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL | THE SOUTH FIELD COAL
(Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes). (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL
(House and Steam Coal) are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, High Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other bituminous Gas Coal in the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

STATION SMASHED IN.

A Train Backs Into and Wrecks the E. & N. Railway Ticket Office.

About half-past one this afternoon an accident occurred at the E. & N. Railway station, resulting in the wrecking of the ticket office and some damage being done to a car.

It seems that a train of six coaches was brought down to carry excursionists to Langford Plains. The crew left the train on the siding at the trestle and went to dinner with the understanding that they should meet at 1:20 and take the train into the station. At the time appointed the conductor and engineer had not put in an appearance and the fireman and brakesman, who were on time, undertook to move the train to the station. After making the switch on to the main track the fireman came back faster than usual and the brakeman failed to get on the train. He (the fireman) continued to back, looking for a signal from the brakeman to stop, which of course he did not get. The consequence was that the train backed into the station with such force that the hind coach was pushed over the buffer (put there to stop trains) and crashed through the brick wall of the station into the ticket office and knocking over a large safe of several tons weight.

Fortunately no person was injured. Fred Brown was seated at the table in the office at the time, and just managed to get out as the safe fell over.

The wheels of the coach were knocked out of position by the buffer, the car being carried over them until the air brakes were in the centre of the carriage.

The damage done was principally to the office, and will amount to about $500. The car and station can easily be repaired.

The accident did not interfere with the excursion to the picnic.

VANCOUVER.

VANCOUVER, June 25.—The steamer Comox takes two excursions to-day up the North Arm. It is oppressively hot, the highest register of this year.

Arthur Wilson, late proprietor of Cedar Cottage Nursery, died suddenly yesterday evening of appoplexy, supposed to have been induced by hard drinking, long continued. Wilson recently sold his nursery for $40,000 and was in the enjoyment of a large income from home, willed by his wealthy friends in the old country. Funeral on Sunday.

The heaviest tide known for years occurred yesterday on the Inlet.

The Empress of Japan, making way for the Wilmington, parted her stern line and created some excitement by moving towards midstream, but speedily returned again.

NANAIMO.

NANAIMO, June 25.—A scandal has just been aired in the police court, before Mr. J. P. Planta. The case arose by a sub-agent of the Canadian Supply Company, named Henley, being arrested for stealing letters from the postoffice, said to belong to W. A. Nolan. The case was further adjourned until next Monday.

The closing down yesterday of the Union mines throws out of employment several hundred miners, the majority of whom are Japanese. The company will retain about five men to look after the mines. This action is due to the dullness in the coal trade.

A very interesting wedding took place at St. Paul's church this afternoon, on which occasion Mr. T. Townsend, conductor of the E. & N. R'y, was united to Miss Francis Lee, of this city. A large concourse of friends attended the church to witness the interesting proceeding. The knot was tied by Rev. J. B. Good. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Victoria.

At the closing of the high school yesterday, the scholars had prepared a neat programme, which tended to make the affair extremely interesting to visitors. Watson Dykes, who appears to be a wonderfully clever boy, carried off the Governor-General's bronze medal.

The steamer Comox took a party on the gulf last evening for a moonlight excursion.

Prof. Steel has awarded a silver medal to Miss Ethel Wolf and the Misses Perchet, the three most advanced pupils in his class.

Mr. J. Crossan, Grand Chancellor, has returned from Union after instituting a new lodge of the K. of P. After the election of officers and installation a grand banquet was partaken of.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church bazaar realized nearly $400 from the affair.

BRIEF LOCALS.

One Day's Doings in City and Province Briefly Related.

The Victoria city band will play in the Market hall this evening.

The provincial board of horticulture held their first meeting yesterday, when it was decided to start Inspector Hutcheson on his work.

There was a large forest fire in the mountains west of Port Angeles yesterdap. There was not enough wind to dissipate the heavy volumes of smoke.

The mercury got up to 85 in the shade at 2:30 this afternoon. And July is yet to come. There is good hope for getting the summer goods off yet, the drygoods men think.

The dust is becoming unbearable on some of the streets not reached by the genial water cart. It almost amounts to asphyxiation to walk across some of them. A shower of rain would be generally appreciated.

KASLO CITY

KOOTENAY LAKE.

SINCE the opening of navigation many hundreds of people have poured into Kaslo City. The discoveries of last fall have proved as rich as expected, and many new ones, fully as important, have been located this spring. The Kaslo-Kootenay Land Company have built roads and trails into the important mines, and surveys have been completed for the railway. The contract for clearing the right-of-way for the latter will be let in a few days. Many substantial buildings have been erected so far this year, and a large number will be begun immediately, including a handsome hotel.

A large number of business and residential lots have been sold, and many have changed hands at a good profit. In a short time the Company will advance the price of all lots.

Now is the Time to Invest.
